Lab School Paris is an innovative, bilingual, community-based, secular school. In 2024-2025, it welcomed 122 students from the 1st to the 11th grade. Its pedagogy is inspired by the contributions of pioneers in educational innovation such as John Dewey, Célestin Freinet, Paulo Freire and Maria Montessori, as well as current research (educational sciences, psychology, sociology, cognitive sciences).

The school is recruiting a part-time bilingual teacher to teach French as a foreign language (FLE) in secondary classes. Prior experience of 2 years teaching a secondary class is essential.

The teacher will work as part of an international team made up of French and English-speaking teachers, a collegial management team, a communications officer and an administrative manager.

MISSIONS

Working closely with other secondary school teachers and the management team, your main role will be to help implement the Lab School Paris pedagogical project by teaching French as a foreign language (FLE) to secondary school classes, and eventually to the IB.

SPECIFIC RESPONSIBILITIES

- Offer teaching of French as a foreign language in line with the school's values
- Participate in the school's interdisciplinary projects
- Develop a relationship of trust with students; work with them to value their successes and progress on a daily basis, and support them in acquiring autonomy through differentiated teaching methods.
- Interact with parents and Lab School Network researchers
- Participate in seminars and team meetings

PROFILE SOUGHT

- Knowledge of International Baccalaureate (IB) programs appreciated
- Teacher with a good knowledge of English or bilingual French-English
- Taste for teamwork and interest in research
- Creativity, responsiveness, initiative, open-mindedness, team spirit
- Experience in the use of digital tools in the classroom
- At least two years' experience in tutoring a group of students (applications from people with only private tutoring experience will not be considered)
- Adherence to and commitment to the values of educational benevolence and the pedagogical project (see the school's website www.labschool.fr).
